Dear

Further reference is made to your letter of April 13 concerning the publication entitled "Atomic Spy Cases," as mentioned in the communication from this office to the postmaster of New York, New York, under date of April 14, a copy of which was furnished you with our letter of April 14.

The postmaster at New York, New York, is in receipt of a letter from the publishers reading as follows:

This is in answer to your letter of April 19th concerning our publication, ATOMIC SPY CASES.

We published the March-April 1950 issue, but will not continue publishing any further issues.

Very truly yours,

/s/
OSBORNE A. PEARSON
Assistant Postmaster General.

Original of this memo was routed to Chief, I&SS, and then to Central Records.
